Westminster, February 18.

THIS Day His Majesty came to the House of Peers, and being in His Royal Robes, seated on the Throne with the usual Solemnity, Sir Charles Dalton Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod, was sent with a Message from His Majesty to the House of Commons, commanding their Attendance in the House of Peers; the Commons being come thither accordingly, His Majesty was pleased to give the Royal Assent to,

An Act for continuing the Duties upon Malt, Mum, Cyder and Perry, in that Part of Great-Britain called England; and for granting to His Majesty certain Duties upon Malt, Mum, Cyder and Perry, in that Part of Great-Britain called Scotland, for the Service of the Year One Thousand Seven Hundred and Twenty Nine, and for making good the Deficiency of a late Malt Act.

And to one private Bill.

Seville, Feb. 4, N. S. Their Catholick Majesties left Badajoz the 27th past, and arrived here the 3d Instant; where they were received with great Magnificence by the Magistracy and Clergy. Their Majesties passed under several Triumphal Arches richly adorned, to the Alcazar or Palace. The Houses were hung with Tapistry; and there was a fine Firework played off from the Tower of the Cathedral. The City has presented the King with 60000 Crowns. Don Pedro Belmonte is arrived with the Character of Minister Plenipotentiary from his Portuguese Majesty to this Court.

Hague, Feb. 25, N. S. The States of the Province of Holland having yet received the Consent of but some of their Towns to the Proposal of reducing the Interest on their Obligations, have separated without taking any final Resolution on the Affairs they had before them; and are to meet again on the 9th of next Month. M. van Welderen, younger Brother of the late Ambassadour of that Name in England, makes an Entertainment this Evening for the Prince of Nassau-Friseland; the said late Ambassadour arrived here from England the 23d Instant. The Count de Plelo, the French Ambassadour to the Court of Denmark, designs to proceed from hence in two or three Days on his Journey thither. Baron Solendahl is arrived here from Copenhagen, on his Return to England.

Hague, March 1, N. S. Baron Solendahl is gone from hence to imbark on the Packet-Boat for England. M. Linn, Minister from the Elector Palatine to the Court of Great Britain, sets out to Morrow for Rotterdam, to imbark for England. The States General have appointed the 16th of this Month, to be observed as a Day of Fasting and Humiliation. Last Night Count Sinzendorff gave a Supper, and afterwards a Ball, for the Entertainment of the Prince of Nassau-Friseland, to which several Persons of Quality of both Sexes were invited.

Paris, Feb. 26, N. S. The States of Languedoc have granted to the King Four Millions of Livres, three of which are by way of Free-Gift, the fourth by a Capitation. The Court will return next Week from Marly to Versailles. The Duke of Orleans, first Prince of the Blood, having desired the King's Consent to his marrying the eldest Princess of Lorrain, his Majesty has granted it: Upon which Occasion his Highness has received the usual Compliments, and will shortly send to demand that Princess in Form.
